III. Reading Short Sentences

Read the text then answer the questions below:

Stories are like doors to new worlds. They let us imagine exciting adventures and meet interesting characters. Last weekend, I watched a comedy movie with my family. It was full of funny scenes, and we laughed until the end! The movie makes us feel many emotions; happy, curious, or even scared. I also love mystery stories because they challenge me to think and solve problems. Stories are everywhere – in books, movies, and plays. They teach us about life, and they show us different cultures and ideas. They help us understand the world better. That's why I believe stories are important for everyone.
